W.T. Woodson Bands Pre-Season Training Information

* Pre-Season Training attendance is mandatory for membership in the W.T. Woodson Marching Band. Success begins with good fundamentals and this usually means a successful season. Marching Band provides an opportunity for the younger player to perform with the more experienced students and they also progress faster because they are playing more than those not in the marching band. The improvement over three months' time is truly amazing to see. The best students in the W.T. Woodson Band program come from the marching band because they have learned discipline, team spirit and most of all, commitment.
