RE: Sang Huynh

Your Honorable,

My name is Phillip Huynh, a Finance Manager at Easterns Automotive Group in Sterling, Virginia and Sang Huynh's younger brother. I fully understand the circumstances that my brother is in. Sang has always been a very kindhearted person that always puts other people's needs ahead of his own. Anyone that knows him will tell you how much happiness and humor he brings into the room. Growing up we were Cub/Boy Scouts in DC Troop 494. I went on to earn my Arrow of Light badge while my brother was working very hard for his Eagle Scout badge before having to relocate to Virginia because of our Parents separating.

Your Honor, we have a Mom and 2 younger brothers that Sang cares for very much, one of which is only the age of 7. I live in a very quiet neighborhood in Burke, Virginia with my Fiancé Annie Hoang. If released on bond I would like for him to stay with me at my home and assure he gets to where he needs to be when appointed.

Respectfully Yours,

Phillip Huynh

Hello Honorable Liam O'Grady
United States District Judge
Eastern District of Virginia,

My Name is Jesse, and I am currently a IT Storage Engineer for the past few years at KLDDiscovery. I currently live in Sterling Virginia. I've known Sang for the better of about 10 years now, ever since I've first met him he's always treated me as a younger brother who I've grown to love and respect. He would always make sure I stayed studying and made sure I made something of myself over the years, and because of that push I've ended up in the career path that I really love and enjoy.

Respectfully Yours,
Jesse Chantharangsy

RE: Sang Huynh

My name is Annie Hoang, a salon owner/stylist at Hair by Annie for the past 9 years. I am currently residing in Burke, Virginia. I know Sang through his brother, Phillip Huynh. Having known Sang for 7 years, I was taken back a bit after I heard of the charges filed against him. Sang is a good guy with a kind heart that's always willing to help anyone in need. He's an amazing son and brother to his family. I will do whatever I can to support him, to insure that he makes good decisions, and to make sure he complies with the terms set by the judge. He is a good person who deserves a chance. Convicting him and sending him to prison would only expose him to further bad influences. I humbly ask you to please give him an opportunity to set his life back on track and not let a bad decision alter his life's direction.

If you have any further questions, please feel free to contact me on 703-628-8077.

Respectfully yours ,
Annie Hoang

Re: Sang Huynh

Dear Judge O'Grady:

My name is Daniel Chang. I have been a federal government employee for the last 3 years working at the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development as a Management Analyst for the Multifamily Family Division. I am writing to you today in regards to Sang Huynh.

Sang Huynh and I became friends when we first met in middle school over 16 years ago. To this day, I still consider him as one of my closest friends. Simply put, Sang Huynh is a generous, loyal, caring, and considerate friend. On the numerous occasions I have reached out for help from him, he did so willingly and without hesitation. Never once has Sang Huynh expected anything in return. The very least I could do for him in return is write this letter.

While I do not know the full details of the Sang Huynh's current situation, I do understand the seriousness of it.

Upon Sang Huynh's release, I intend to aid him on his future road to recovery by offering every assistance available. I only hope for the best outcome.

I thank you for your time in reading this. Please let me know if there is any thing else I can assist with in this matter.

Sincerely,

RE: Sang Huynh

My name is Son Luu, I am the Regional Operations Manager at HayStackID LLC for the last five years and before that a Noncommissioned Officer in the United States Navy. I currently live in Virginia, before that I lived in DC where I met Sang over two decades ago.

Your Honor, the purpose of this letter saddens me but the heartfelt truth within are from a childhood friend who learned an important lesson from Sang. Twenty years have come to past, the memories forged are now table talks at our occasional gatherings. The last time I saw Sang, he looked different in appearance yet radiated the same level of confidence of the Sang I first met in third grade over twenty years ago.

Your Honor, I'd just started the 3rd grade at Bancroft Elementary School when I experienced my first bullying incident. The incident ended with Sang's intervention. While my knees shook and I remained speechless, Sang stood tall in confidence next to me and demanded the bullies leave me alone not just for that day but forever. I looked over at this mountain of a kid, eyes envying his courage and thanked him, then asked why he wasn't scared.

"I was really scared but you protect and take care of family, no matter what."

You Honor, till date, I am still baffled at how a 3rd grade kid was able to say these words, suppress his fear and stood up so courageously to a group of bullies. I only began to understand what family meant when I enlisted in the military, even then it was hard to sum up the courage when needed to protect them. Sang's word echoed till date within me and I continue to live my life taking care of my family, to include Sang if ever the opportunity presents itself.

Your Honor, when the final verdict is rendered, and sentence gaveled. I believe that Sang will accept and pay his debt to society with remorse. The path Sang and I walked, though different, our purpose was and still is the same; to take care of family no matter what. The opportunities afforded to me while growing up may have bypassed Sang and the path he took were the few choices afforded to him. In choosing his path, I wholeheartedly believe Sang had the interest of his single parent, "mom" and little brothers in mind. Society and the law may look at Sang through a different lens but for those who know Sang, we see a son, a brother, a family man who will do what it takes to protect and take care of his family.

Very Respectfully

Son T. Luu

RE: Sang Huynh

My name is Diana Nguyen, a Registered Nurse at East Jefferson General Hospital in Metairie, Louisiana for the past year. I currently live in New Orleans, Louisiana. Prior to moving to Louisiana in June 2018, I lived in Dumfries, Virginia and I was a full-time student in the Nursing Program at Northern Virginia Community College.

I met Sang Huynh in 8th grade when he transferred to my middle school and he has been one of my dearest friends for the past 15 years. Sang is a big-hearted guy who would give the shirt off his back for his family and loved ones. He has always been generous, despite how much or little he had. I feel very fortunate to have genuine friend who cares about my wellbeing and achievements. I have never felt any hesitation to support Sang because he has not once hesitated to give me support.

Respectfully yours,

RE: Sang Huynh

My name is Tayson Nguyen, currently a Radiology Resident at Tulane University Medical Center in New Orleans, Louisiana. I grew up in Falls Church, Virginia. I graduated from Virginia Commonwealth University in 2013. I graduated from Lake Erie College of Osteopathic Medicine in Pennsylvania in May 2018. I moved to New Orleans, Louisiana in June 2018 to begin my residency at Tulane.

I have known Sang since I was in middle school, when I met him and his brother as members of different Vietnamese Boy Scout troops in the D.C./Maryland/Virginia area. We attended the same high school, known then as J.E.B. Stuart High School in Falls Church, and have been close friends since.

We have grown far beyond our scout years, yet I believe Sang continues to live with many of the ideals that scouting emphasizes. I believe his loyalty, kindness, and helpfulness to his family and friends are traits that he exhibits innately.

I hold very dearly his unwavering support of my pursuit for my aspirations. Although my educational journey has taken me far from home, I still consider Sang as one of my closest friends. And as he has always supported me, I will do all I am able to continue to support him.

Respectfully Yours,
